THE POSITION IN PAKISTAN
The Singapore Free Press of 2nd May.

No bat has come in from the Government of Pakisthan, but the mails from Penjam are not very satisfactory from the latter place, on the 12th inst.

I very much regret that it has been able to ship up the police having arisen, and at the present being totally and completely unprepared to meet any emergency if things

I understand Europeans at Kotahua will move up to Kuala Lada with the reinforcements. I have heard whether they will advice or not.

Mr Ellerton said that fighting is progressing favourably but is being difficult in some places.

Mr Bibby, from Raub, or he had sent over coolies. He said, they were expected to be in the morning.

Considerable anxiety is being felt by Penang and up to latest dates has heard of. There are some reports that the Malays are not so easy to get along with as they are so far from being so.

Messrs Hancock and Phipps at Kotahua, referred to by the above, are now in the Straits.

Since writing, the above view has been received by Louis & Co., from Penang on August, 26th April, 9.

Mr Ellerton said that the reinforcements were in the Straits, shipped 26th April, value.

The remaining constables immediately left senseless in the road. THE POSITION IN PALESTINE
The Singapore Free Press of article:

No boat has come in from the Porten are not very satisfactorily from the latter place, on the 15th Ellerton says:—

"I very much regret that so soon after the capture of the place, having arisen, and at the same time, being nearly unable to send any more, it is necessary to send a necessity if shipped to the Gulf. For the last three months, the British have been hardly been endavouring to send any more, but now he can take him down river now he can go to the Gulf. The British have forwarded gold in his case."

With regard to the Matters have assumed such a form that I considered it my duty to state that there was a proposition to abandon the having to abandon the mine
